

Links to further information

Suggested Further Information

Both the Met Office and Environment Agency produce additional background information on weather and flooding which is available online. This material is useful in looking at previous floods, the conditions that led up to flooding and provides some context for future flooding. Links to the relevant sites are included below.

Background Information on Weather

- Climate of the UK (Link)
- Extreme Weather (Link)
- Thunderstorms (Link)
- Air Masses and Weather Fronts (Link)
- Storms, Severe and Extreme Weather (further references) (Link)

Historic and Notable Flood Events

- Lynmouth Flash Floods 1952 (Link)
- East Coast Floods 1953 (Link)
- Martinsown Record Rainfall 1955 (Link)
- Chew Stoke Floods 1968 (Link)
- Halifax Floods 1989 (Link)
- Towyn Coastal Floods 1990 (Link)
- Boscastle Flash Floods 2004 (Link)
- Summer 2007 Floods (Link)
- November 2012 Floods (Link)

Flood Risk in England and Wales

- Summary Information - Flooding in England (Link)
- Summary Information - Flooding in Wales (Link)
- Summer 2007 Floods Review (Link)

Date – 04 July 2013

Version – One