

UKCR Key Messages: Research Gaps

A consistent 'challenge' focussed approach to future research via increased collaboration across sectors and society.

Further developing the resilience community's boundary spanning skills, vital for ensuring useful and usable outputs.

Expand and apply techniques and approaches developed in the programme to additional locations, situations and risks.

Generating better understanding of how risks can be reduced through resilience building and adaptation.

